

Talk about what is happening here and now

This means that:

- Your child is more likely to understand you.
- Your child is more likely to join in.

If you are talking about something they can't see, it helps if you use a picture, photo or object as a clue.

