

Speak slowly and simply

Try not to say much

This means:

- Your child will hear the important words.
- Your child will hear the same words repeated.
- Your child will keep on listening and so have more chance to understand you.

