FO1	1. Develop and Embed values based recruitment and behaviours within the Trust.	The Trust's values are being mapped with the values and behaviours required to work within the organisation. Work is underway to determine what they look like in practice, whether they vary across roles and how can they be embedded. The organisation's recruitment and selection training is being reviewed to ensure that the Trust's values, vision and behaviours are clearly evident at all stages of the process and that the findings from the WRES, Stonewall, liP and FFT are highlighted. This includes the appointment of a body of staff who will be identified as 'expert recruiters'. HR staff attended the NHS Employers Values Based Recruitment event in November 2016 to further enhance design and delivery of current recruitment activity. All Learning/ Organisational Development education/ lesson plans are being reviewed through the lens of diversity to ensure that staff are clearly aware of what is expected of them in this respect. A review of the Trust induction is underway and following consultation with key stakeholders a revised program	C Teeney	J Eve/ J Hogan March 2019 (Review March 2018)	30% ○	3.1, 3.3, 3.6, 4.1, 4.3

		will be delivered that will clearly highlight expected staff behaviours and values. In addition work is currently being progressed to ensure that any agencies utilised by the Trust adopt the Trust's vision and values as related to recruitment.
	2. Support people managers to have the skills to manage, develop, recruit and retain diverse teams e.g. appraisal skills, managing conflict, recruitment and selection.	Current HR management training programmes are in place across the organisation, which include; conducting investigations, managing effective working relationships, well-being and absence management, recruitment and selection, dealing with challenging conversations and management of individual performance and behaviours. These currently 'stand-alone' programmes are to be reviewed with a view to incorporating them where possible within the Vision 21 and Aspire training. It is anticipated that these reviews will be undertaken by April 2018.	C Teeney	J Eve/ K Waters April 2018	60% A
	3. Proactively encourage people from BME communities to apply for jobs with the Trust, engaging with diverse communities to promote recruitment at cultural events/festivals and job fayres, particularly in multi-cultural areas e.g. Birmingham, Leicester, Sheffield and London.	Despite that fact that all Trust jobs are advertised on NHS Jobs, the need to advertise more broadly to access the BME talent pool has been identified. Accordingly key roles are being advertised within the community press and via social media. Plans are in place to extend this further, using positive statements in adverts to encourage BME people to apply. In addition the Trust has a regular job advert running on Notts TV which is also showcased on the Trust website.	C Teeney	J Hogan/ C Cocking/ M Bateman March 2019 (Review January 2018)	35% O

		Within the Local Partnerships Division an action plan is being developed to address this objective as part of the division's workforce, equality and diversity action plan. A recruitment task and finish group is in place to develop a programme highlighting key events and encourage staff to attend to promote working for the Trust e.g. the Caribbean Carnival, the Riverside Festival/ Mela. The Trust services continue to participate in culturally and socially diverse community events e.g. the Nottingham Healthfest, the Robin Hood Marathon, Nottinghamshire Pride and Splendour and continue to advertise where possible through the medium of community centres and networks. Trust recruitment literature, including promotional flyers and banners, feature a BME nurse and doctor on the front cover, with the purpose of encouraging people from BME communities to attend recruitment open events, such as those at Highbury Hospital in Winter 2016. Staff at Lings Barr Hospital took part in a recruitment fair at De Montfort Uni in Leicester to encourage third year student nurses from diverse backgrounds to apply for roles within the organisation. In addition the hospital, with backing from the Volunteering Support Team supported a volunteer from the BME community to train as a Healthcare Assistant, enabling the individual to work on the Staff Bank.

	4. Extend the analysis of workforce metrics overall to identify trends in data and seek the advice of the Race, Religion and Belief Equality Steering Group and the BME Staff Network as to future actions. Carry out more in-depth data analysis to ascertain why fewer BME candidates are progressing from the application to shortlisting and interview phases i.e. Examine BME data by Age, Disability etc. Use this information to inform future action planning.	Data from the 2015 and 2016 WRES is being scrutinised to ensure that we fully understand what it is telling us e.g. we know that more BME people are not successful in being shortlisted or progressing from shortlisting to interview, but we want to understand this better. In-depth analysis has now commenced on BME recruitment levels and a report run based on quarter 1 figures (April – June 17). From this report we have sampled 10 vacancies and will review these based on reasons for not shortlisting and reasons for not appointing BME candidates. This report will be completed mid July 17 and presented to the September meeting of the Race, Religion and Belief Equality Steering Group for discussion and advice. At the inaugural meeting of the BME Staff Network in June 2017 attendees agreed that the WRES, its actions and outcomes be a key area for discussion, on which they will be consulted and offer advice/support to the Trust. Simon Crowther, Executive Director for Finance, has taken up the role of Board Champion for Race, Religion and Belief. With the help of Dr Itai Matumbike, as Senior BME Champion, he will support and develop the Race, Religion and Belief Equality Steering Group and the BME Staff Network.	C Teeney/ S Crowther	R Cotterill/ P Herr September 2017	60% A

	5. Promote positive role models within local schools e.g. BME nurses, doctors, HR professionals, AHPs, accountants etc.	The Local Partnerships Equality and Diversity Lead is working with General Managers to ensure all staff working with local schools and colleges promote health and care service job roles Training for the Health Ambassadors Scheme, delivered by Health Education England, has commenced. Accordingly trained staff will attend a number of planned school career events and activities in Nottingham and Nottinghamshire over the coming school year. Their role is to help recruit new ambassadors, support careers and employability activities in schools and co-ordinate 3 main career events i.e. What Next Careers and Skills Fair, Mansfield and Ashfield Careers and Apprenticeship Fair, Festival of Science and Curiosity. A BME staff member recently attended a job fair for 15/16 year olds at Harvey Haddon Sports Village to promote jobs in the NHS. It was a 2 day event attended by over 4,000 young people. The ambassador role has been highlighted on the Trust intranet site, with additional work to promote it further planned.	J Attfield/ J Hankin	Associate Directors of Nursing/ Associate Directors of AHP's/ Associate Medical Directors September 2018 (Review January 2018)	25% ○

This is now being embedded in the delivery of the Trust's management training programmes, namely ASPIRE and Vision 21, the latter of which captures 100 middle managers per year. The delivery of Unconscious Bias Training is being discussed in the context of the development of a revised and reformed Trust induction.	C Teeney	J Eve March 2019 (Review March 2018)	35% O
7. Ensure that organisational values, vision and positive behaviours at Trust Induction facilitate learning, recognition and challenge of cultural bias	Communication of the Trust's values, vision and behaviour is a key element of the Trust induction (Day 1) for all new starters and is embedded within other key aspects of the programme e.g. Basic Life Support. Furthermore this element of learning and development is a key feature in the re-development of the Trust's revised and reformed induction offer commencing in September 2017. Mental health services for Older People staff undertake Band 1-4 DISK training, included within which is a session on 'Working across Cultures'. This looks at what culture is, stereotyping, cultural perspectives and what to consider when working with diverse cultures.	C Teeney	J Eve December 2017	60% A

10. Actively celebrate key events such as Black History Month, enabling those staff that choose to do so to help raise the awareness of others.	In addition to the Black History Month flag being raised above Trust HQ, the Trust supported a Black History Mental Health community-led event in October 2016. A Trust sponsored WRES/ Black History Month celebration event is being planned for October 2017. Equality and Diversity leads within the divisions are exploring the promotion of and engagement in Black History Month 2017 events with their services. Communication to all staff, service users, carers, volunteers etc. on good news associated with BME events continues via the Positive newsletter,	Operational Directors/ S Crowther/ J Attfield	C Conchar/ Divisional E&D Leads/ P Sanguinazzi/ Communications Ongoing March 2019 (Review March 2018)	50% A
