

Support line for trans people

Confidential support for people referred to or attending
The Nottingham Centre for Transgender Health

 Call 020 7832 5813

Message 07592 650496

Email supportline@genderedintelligence.co.uk

Open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays 1-6pm

When the service is busy or closed, you may leave a message

You can use the telephone support service to:

- prepare for your first appointment
- gather information about the service and the assessment process at The Nottingham Centre for Transgender Health
  - seek support and wellbeing advice
- seek information about support groups available

The telephone support service is not:

- part of the assessment process
- able to change appointments at the Centre
- for medical advice regarding gender affirming medical interventions
  - an emergency service

In case of an emergency please ring the emergency services on 999

This service is delivered in partnership with:

gendered intelligence
increasing understandings of gender diversity